FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MARTINSVILLE, VA

PASTOR'S CORNER

Rev. Mark Hinchcliff
FPC Martinsville, VA

August 5, 2020

"For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared for us in advance to do." Ephesians 2:10

Do you ever feel like you can never be good enough? Well in this time of the pandemic this feels like something pastors and politicians can finally share. Whether it's taking the proper health precautions to protect the community, showing the proper empathy of others unlike us, or trying to correct our own past mistakes, it seems like it's never enough. I laugh when I read the Apostle Paul's charge to be all things to all people when I feel I fail to be enough for even a few. We watch the news on national and local issues and see the focus on the superstars or celebrities all around us. Instead of being inspired by these stories we feel a deeper sense of inadequacy for our own response. So why didn't God give me those skills to shine above the rest when so many need a hero to follow?

While shining the light on the extremely gifted gives hope to some, I'm concerned that some of us may give up attempting to make a difference when we feel we can't measure up. While we may not see the spotlight of celebrity, God doesn't call us to be famous but only faithful! God calls us to love one another, to give ourselves away to serve others besides ourselves, and to focus our lives with God's purpose individually and in community according to God's plan. We cannot solve the world's problems alone but we each have a role to play according to God's call.

Stop playing the comparison game where everyone loses. There will always be someone else who does things a little bit better or is more effective. We are called to serve the Lord. Our desire should be solely to please Him. Serve the Lord today with only your best. If you put forth your best, your service will give honor and glory to the King.

By the love of Christ,

Pastor Mark

Volunteers Needed

The outside of the church, (which is Covid free!) needs a bit of attention. During the next few weeks, if you have some time and are so inclined, please stop by the church as there is plenty of work to be done. Weeds, tree/bush pruning, sticks, etc., are all things that need to be addressed. If we all give just an hour or two of our time, this can all be easily accomplished.

A group is planning on meeting this Saturday, August 8, starting at 8 am. If you are free, please consider coming over to help out.

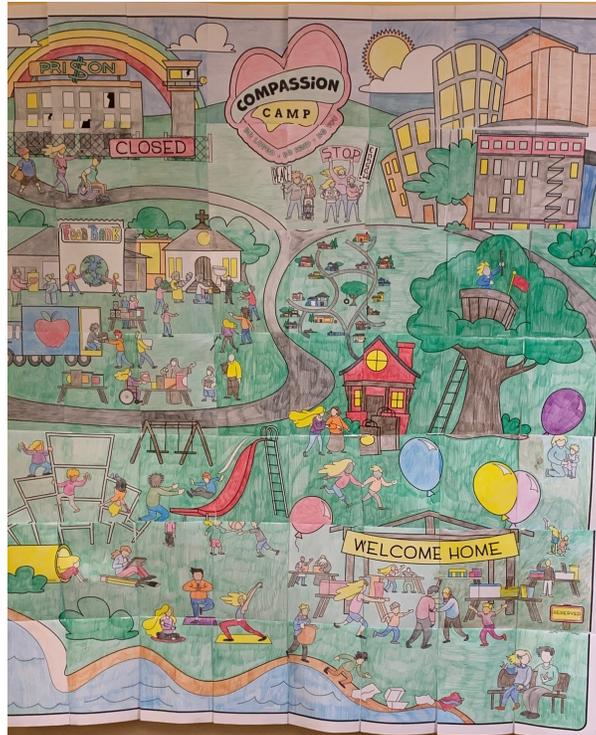

THANK YOU!

Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School

Compassion helps us to be present with others! Even during this time of social distancing, we can still find many ways to be present with one another. Our friends at King's Grant were able to individually complete each of these 56 squares to later combine into this one very large-scale wall poster for all to enjoy- a fun way to be creative while socially distant yet collectively sharing their artwork. Thank you, residents and staff of King's Grant, for participating in our virtual VBS in this way.

A Note from the the Editor

Although regular church services have been cancelled and we are no longer meeting in person, I hope we all try to stay in touch with one another using any possible medium. Phone calls, face time, emails, etc. It is important that we look after one another during these difficult times and it's good to know we are not alone. While there are no regular happenings to report on, I would like to send out Steeple Views on a weekly basis so please feel free to share any news or updates with me and I will do my best to include them in the newsletter. skirbycwj@gmail.com or 276 806-9709.
