FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MARTINSVILLE, VA

Pastor's Corner

Pastor Bea Miller

Dear First Presbyterian family,

On Sunday, January 18th we will have a congregational meeting to consider incorporating our church. About 20 years ago the PC(USA) encouraged all churches to incorporate. For many reasons, our congregation chose not to incorporate.

With the advent of the Community Office Wing, the topic of incorporation resurfaced. As we become landlords, incorporation seems to make more sense. Our tenants would be doing business with the corporation that is First Presbyterian, as opposed to a list of church officers. The corporation that is First Presbyterian would also hold our assets ~ property and financial. The Treasurer of our church, would become the treasurer of the corporation. The Clerk of Session, would become the secretary of the corporation. And the Session would serve as the Board of Directors. These are all legal distinctions. Some think incorporation is not necessary, but most agree that many processes would be eased by incorporating. Incorporation is seen, by most, as a way to keep our officers from being personally liable in the event of an issue with the Community Office Wing. The Session voted unanimously to move forward with incorporating.

You may have noticed that we have not elected a new class of Trustees. If we incorporate, the office of Trustee will evaporate and the Session, as the Board of Directors of the corporation, will serve the functions of the Trustees. However, the financial management needs will remain. The function of financial management will shift to a new group, yet to be determined, who will report directly to the Session.

I invite you to bring your questions about incorporation to Second Cup this Sunday (January 11), where we will have an open conversation. The hope is to answer most questions prior to the congregational meeting on January 18.

And on a musical note..... This Sunday will be an all MIDI Sunday. Come and experience the MIDI. We will talk about it during the Time with Young Disciples.

Peace be with you,

Pastor Bea

From the Weekday School

Hi Everyone!

We are back after a wonderful break! I know that the holidays have passed but I wanted to let you know about our last couple of days before break! On the 18th, we had a wonderful Christmas program and the silent auction was a big hit! We made over $550. We absolutely couldn't have raised that much without help and I want to thank everyone who helped and donated! We had Santa come visit on Friday and each class had a Christmas party.

Our first day back was Wednesday and everyone was excited to be back! We have 2 new one year olds starting this month as well.
