Pastor's Corner

Rev. Mark Hinchcliff

July 8, 2020

"What shall we say, then? Shall we go on sinning so that grace may increase? By no means! We died to sin; how can we live in it any longer? For we know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

"Romans 6: 1,2,6,11

For many years, since I was a father with small children, I have maintained memberships with various zoos across the nation. Because of those memberships, and as zoos begin to reopen as part of the next phase of lessening of pandemic restrictions, I receive regular publications about animal lives. One article that caught my eye was about the training of young elephants growing to maturity in zoos. It seems that at a very young age, before growing too large or overpowering, young elephants would be shackled to a small tree to keep them in place for training. At this age the elephant is unable to pull the tree over. As the little elephant matures however it does not recognize new strength but rather deems itself bound forever and can be restrained with a small stick.

As broken sinful humanity, what habitual sins are shackling our actions today? What is part of our DNA make-up and what sins have we been taught and can be relearned differently as we grow in our spiritual lives of the future? What is it that holds us back from experiencing freedom found only in Christ? Maybe its our eating habits, unhealthy relationships, discriminatory thoughts or actions, or even an inability to ask for help. What is it that has you shackled to that immovable tree and keeps you from growing? Don't become too comfortable with your captivity or like the elephant you may lose hope believing your sin is the mighty tree holding you where it may only be a small stick.

As followers of Christ we are not immune to sin but rather have a real advocate to fight sin and its real consequences with God's Holy Spirit! Although Christ has the ability to change lives in an immediate way, with most of us old habits die hard. But Jesus' death and resurrection can set us free from the shackles of sin and be made alive again.

Congregational Meeting

"Due to not only the pandemic, social distancing and isolation to curb the spread of the disease, the world will ever be changed in the way we conduct our day-to-day lives. The work of the church has been complicated where far reaching, innovative ways to extend God's message to God's people will require our best leadership. Whether you require your grandchildren to show you how to turn your phone on, or you are highly skilled in computer technology, we need your help." - Pastor Mark

On Sunday July 12th, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. a virtual congregational meeting will be held to fill an unexpired Session term and to elect the Nominating Committee for future leadership. Please exercise your voting rights as your responsibility to the church. You can participate and here's how....

- If you haven't used Zoom, it's similar to "Facetime" or "Skype" and most find it easy to learn.
- One of the best features of Zoom, is you can use it on just about any device with a camera and a microphone (smartphone, laptop, iPad, etc.). You can even just dial in with any phone.
- You can download the add-on from the Zoom.us website or the Zoom app from the Android or Apple store and it's free. We highly recommended you do that ahead of time so you can test your device and connection at: zoom.us/test.

In the meantime, please let Denny Casey (276-224-3906) know if you have any questions or issues – the sooner the better.

Compassion Camp: Coming Soon!

First Presbyterian, in partnership with other churches in Martinsville & Eden, will be offering a virtual at-home Vacation Bible School program this summer. Although we are sad to not have our in-person VBS or Camp Peaks programs this year, we are excited to offer this unique opportunity.

Who's Invited? Compassion Camp will be available to participants, preschoolers-rising 6th graders, July 27-31. While each day's session will be sent out via email each morning, you will be able to complete each session at your leisure. This event is FREE so invite your grandchildren, nieces, nephews, friends, and neighbors!

Materials & Supplies: The supplies you will need are items you will likely have readily available in your household. A list of supplies can be found HERE.

Registration: You can find more information & register your children HERE or please contact Sam at sfsmith@mail.roanoke.edu or 276-224-2811 if you have any questions.

Presbytery of the Peaks has decided to publish a cookbook!! They are continuing to collect recipes from all over the Presbytery. Please email your recipes to Theresa Underwood, Peaks PW Treasurer. Her email address is: tundwood@aol.com.

We have so many good cooks in our congregation. It would be lovely to have our church participate!!

Adult Sunday School

This is the book we will be using for the next Sunday school class beginning on June 14 and will run for about 10 weeks. We will be offering the class by Zoom. Books are being ordered. Anyone interested in joining the class contact Denny Casey d.a.casey@comcast.net or (276) 224-3906. Denny will be creating a schedule and would like to encourage leaders or co-leaders to sign up to lead one (or more) classes.

Here's a blurb from the PCUSA bookstore:

J. PHILIP WOGAMAN

"Examining other religions provides Christians the opportunity to more deeply understand their own beliefs.

Learning about other religions is not the same as learning from other religions, which can have great value to Christians who wish to strengthen their faith.

In this book's ten easy-to-read chapters, Wogaman shows readers what Christians can learn from different religions, such as Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, and even from atheism. From these religions, Christians can achieve insight into love, sin, ritual, the importance of myth to convey truth, the foundational roots of Christianity, the dark side of Christian history, and many other important ways to see and interpret the world and to understand God. The book concludes with a chapter on what other religions can learn from Christianity.

Perfect for church study groups, each chapter ends with questions for discussion."

A Note from the the Editor

Although regular church services have been cancelled and we are no longer meeting in person, I hope we all try to stay in touch with one another using any possible medium. Phone calls, face time, emails, etc. It is important that we look after one another during these difficult times and it's good to know we are not alone. While there are no regular happenings to report on, I would like to send out Steeple Views on a weekly basis so please feel free to share any news or updates with me and I will do my best to include them in the newsletter.
