Devotional for the Week of March 6, 2022

Elder Dr. Denny Casey

"Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord. And serve only him.'"

I love it when someone approaches me with a question about something from the weekly lectionary. Not that I'm a biblical scholar or a theological expert by any stretch, but I like the idea that someone is engaged enough in the text that they would want to discuss it more.

Last Sunday's gospel reading was from Luke 4:1-13 and immediately after the service, a church member came up to me and asked, related to verses 5-8 (above), "did the devil really have the power to give Jesus authority over all the kingdoms of the world, or was he just telling Jesus that?" What a great question I thought! And like many good questions, it leads to a great many more questions.

I wondered about how my friend worded the question, "did the devil really have the power.." and about how a literal interpretation of the passage might lead us down a rabbit hole, searching for 'evidence' of the origin of the devil's power and his 'official authority.'

But the more I thought about it, the last part of his question, "...or was he (the devil) just telling Jesus that?" seemed like a more fruitful place to start. "I think you're on to something," I agreed. "If we think of the devil as evil personified, and that he took on the role of being the 'standard bearer' of this world, he might tell Jesus anything to test his resolve in an attempt to lure him away from God, allying himself with serving the world."

That might sound like an easy test for the Son of God, but for us, real evil is far more shrewd and cunning. The devil allures us with things that are appealing, things that feed our ego. We get snared into thinking that true meaning in life comes from our own glorification and earthly authority. When we devote our energies to the things of this world, we have less time for God. Maybe that's where the devil's real power comes from.

Jesus shows us, ultimate authority - all honor and glory - belongs to God and to God alone. We might be tempted into thinking that if only Jesus was king of the world, then all our problems would be solved. But Jesus was never to be that kind of king. Playing the world's game, even for a good purpose, would be to risk serving something less than God.

Prayer

Father in heaven, only you are the one true living God whose love endures from one generation to another. Give me an undivided heart to serve you wholeheartedly and without rival. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

In Christ,

Denny

Children of Ukraine

This youngster lives in one of the children's homes in Kryvyi Rih, Ukraine's seventh largest city and the largest in the Dnipropetrovska Oblast. The Dnipropetrovska Oblast borders the two Russian-leaning regions, Donetsk and Luhansk. As of today, March 1, the fighting is 3 hours away. They were hit on Thursday night by rockets from the Russian forces but it's been quiet since.

Many wonder what they can do in this tragic situation. Here's one option. We still have a funding channel open to the children's homes in Kryvyi Rih. The urgent funding needs are generators and food and medical supplies and can still be purchased locally, though they are in short supply. Donations may be made at the following Facebook link and will be sent immediately. Alternatively, grants and donations may be sent to "Peacework" at 620 N. Main St., Suite 306, Blacksburg, VA 24060. Peacework is a volunteer program affiliated with Community College Ministries in Blacksburg. There are no fees. 100% of the donation will go to the orphanages in Ukraine and donations are tax-deductible.
