FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MARTINSVILLE, VA

From the desk of Rev. Mark Hinchcliff

First Presbyterian Church of Martinsville, Virginia

April 26, 2021

"For I know the plans I have for you ... plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11 NIV

I remember almost seven years ago when I first came to this church, I took this Scripture out of Jeremiah as not only inspiration but also a charge. A charge never to act towards intentional harm but rather to act with plans to give hope for a future. The church was grieving from the physical and emotional loss of a beloved pastor followed by a difficult transition. In my own personal search for a new church, I had already been offered another position close to home with lots of attractive amenities. But the need, and the calling, appeared to be here.

My previous history revealed a bit of an unusual journey into the ministry from a Special Agent from the U.S. Treasury to an ordained Minister of the Word and Sacraments. Although maybe unusual, I believe in some ways my journey gave me a real- life perspective advantage that others had to learn on their own.

Personal struggles helped me to understand the world outside the church as well as within. Learning to get past my training of "just the facts" however, sometimes may have made me appear a little abrupt to some of you. For this I truly apologize to those of you that may have experienced this! However, my intent has always been for the benefit and spiritual nurture of the congregation as a whole rather than the loudest voice (Unless that voice was God).

My physical health ended my career as a Special Agent but provided for an open door for God's ministry. I came to each church I have served with a medical disability which I have learned to deal with. and push through, for almost twenty years. As I have finally approached my Social Security retirement age and desire to make the most of the years I have left in this life, it's time to move to the next stage. My goal when I came to this church was to provide a little healing for the congregation. God provided the hope!

As I walk down the hallway to the pastor's office, I look at pictures of twenty pastors who have each served as servants to the next phase of God's plan. Each one has brought a particular gift to the life of this community and its spiritual journey. Thank you to all who have allowed me to walk along side of you in yours. As the Session sees fit, I would like to continue to serve with you towards the end of the year. For my own health and the health of this congregation, get excited for what God has in store for us all next. My heart will be with you always. May you remember mine in yours.

Blessings,

Pastor Mark

Please give generously to support the PC(USA) Pentecost Special Offering, which will help support our own children as well as youth ministries around the world. This year, Pentecost Sunday falls on May 23.

On the Day of Pentecost, we celebrate God's gift of the Holy Spirit. His Spirit draws us together as one people, helps us to comprehend what He is doing in the world, and empowers us to proclaim, in word and in deed, His plan of reconciling all people in the name of Christ (Ephesians 1:10).

The Pentecost Offering unites us in a church-wide effort to support young people and inspire them to share faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world. 40% of the offerings collected from our church stays with our church, and 60% is used by national programs and initiatives that support young adults, ministries with youth, and children at risk.

By supporting this offering, you are helping to shape a positive future for young lives, for our church and for our world. Please give generously to this offering.

"Reading the Bible with New Eyes: Finding a Life-Giving Faith in Guatemala"

Without travel to Guatemala to connect us, our mission partner CEDEPCA (Protestant Center for Pastoral Studies in Central America) is offering a "Virtual Journey." For years, Protestants in Guatemala have been taught a narrow Fundamentalism, and now are making new discoveries as they read the Bible.

On this Virtual Journey, learn how a theology based in the love and justice of Jesus Christ is transforming the lives and communities of people in Central America. You will hear testimonies from pastors and laypeople in CEDEPCA's Biblical and Theological Formation program and be led through an eye-opening study of scripture by Dr. Paulo Ueti, Anglican theologian, New Testament scholar, and friend of CEDEPCA.

Wednesday, May 19, 7:30-9:00 p.m.

MacArthur Bible Studies: Study of Isaiah

Begins: April 11 at 8:30 AM - June 13 by Zoom

The MacArthur Bible Studies provide intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture and continues to be one of the bestselling study guide series on the market today. In this study, Dr. MacArthur examines the words of the prophet Isaiah, showing how God proved to be faithful to his people (and us) by promising to send Messiah who would save them from sin. These latest all-new studies join the ranks of the previously released study guides, now offering readers a comprehensive selection of Old Testament Bible studies by bestselling author and theologian John MacArthur.

Each lesson includes:

- Drawing Near: An opening question based on the key theme or topic of the lesson
- The Context: Background information on the passage of Scripture being studied
- Keys to the Text: Detailed commentary on the passage being studied
- Unleashing the Text: Application questions on the passage highlighted in the lesson
- Exploring the Meaning: Three key takeaways from the passage
- Reflecting on the Text: Reflection questions on the passage highlighted in the lesson
- Personal Response: A journaling section to help readers apply the principles

Each study includes an introduction that provides background information to each book of the Bible being studied and a closing "Reviewing Key Principles" lesson to help cement the main themes of the study.

Bible Study: Stewardship of Creation

Begins: April 21 at 7 PM by Zoom for six weeks

This is being organized by the FPC Earth Care team

Description from the publisher:

"Explore the biblical bases for our care of creation along with sessions on being environmentally friendly at home, at church, and in the world."

Being Reformed: Faith Seeking Understanding is a series of biblically based mini-courses that provides adults with a foundational understanding of the Reformed faith. Each six-session study--written by well-known and respected scholars--features Scripture, prayer, in-depth commentary, and questions for reflection. Each study addresses its subject from a Reformed theological perspective. Lessons are enhanced through the Leader's Guide, which offers helpful suggestions and direction for group study. The main structure for these guides is the rubric Head, Heart, and Hands.

We have borrowed a few books from the presbytery office that will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Contact Sam Smith, sam@peakspresbytery.org, to borrow a copy or you may purchase a copy from the PCUSA bookstore.

Earth Care Congregation Certification

To become an Earth Care Congregation, this congregation affirmed an Earth Care Pledge to integrate environmental practices and thinking into their worship, education, facilities, and outreach.

The Earth Care Congregation certification is designed to recognize churches that make the commitment to take seriously God's charge to "till and keep" the garden.

Started in 2010 by the PC(USA), the goal of this program is to inspire churches to care for God's earth in a holistic way, through integrating earth care into all aspects of their church life. The Earth Care Congregation certification honors churches that make that commitment and encourages others to follow their example.

"It is exciting that First Presbyterian Church is one of the 276 churches that chose to dedicate themselves to intentional care of God's earth this year. Particularly in a time of much uncertainty and worry about the future, this congregation's activities and commitment even in the midst of navigating limitations brought about by COVID-19 brings hope to their community. We believe that First Presbyterian Church will inspire others to respond intentionally to God's call to care for the earth," says Jessica Maudlin, Associate for Sustainable Living and Earth Care Concerns for the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.).

For more information about First Presbyterian Church's earth care program contact Denny Casey at d.a.casey@comcast.net or (276) 224-3906.

Pentecost At Home Faith Formation

Pentecost is the day when we celebrate God's gift of the Holy Spirit, which unites us together as one and helps us to see God at work in our world. The Pentecost Offering also "unites us in a church-wide effort to support young people and inspire them to share their faith, ideas, and unique gifts with the church and the world."

Beginning the week of April 25, and each week leading up to Pentecost Sunday, families, of any size and all ages, are encouraged to utilize the at home faith formation resources linked below as a devotional. Each week you will read the guiding scripture passage, Psalm 71:17 as well as a story of how the Pentecost Offering impacts ministries for children, youth, and young adults. You're also encouraged to work on coloring the Pentecost Mandala and much like with the prayer doves last year, please send pictures of your completed creation to me!

Collect a weekly gift to the Pentecost Offering in your faith formation space and then bring or mail to the church your offering on or before Pentecost Sunday. Your gift not only supports ministries within the PC(USA), but also ministries for children and youth within our own congregation.

Blessings,
Sam
