FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, MARTINSVILLE, VA

Pastor's Corner

Pastor Bea Miller

Dear First Presbyterian family,

Christ is risen indeed! With great appreciation to Whitney and our many musicians, Easter Sunday was a glorious celebration! Music can take us to the heavens and beyond. We are blessed with many musicians who point us to the glory of God. And a special thank you to Taylor who was in the choir, served as our liturgist, played trumpet, and served communion!

Our Maundy Thursday – Tenebrae service was a meaningful wonder, thanks to support from our choir and the volunteers who stripped the church and provided our Tenebrae readings. Easter is a more profound experience when we have journeyed through Holy Week together, with Jesus. Prior to our service we enjoyed fellowship and a beautiful potluck dinner. Thank you, to everyone who helped with set-up, clean-up and creating great food to share.

This Sunday we welcome Dr. Denny Casey to our pulpit. I am grateful that Denny will be with you in my absence. Denny is one of us. He was on the Transition Team that originally brought me here as Interim. It is exciting to have him preaching at home! Please give him a hug for me!

With Easter blessings,

Pastor Bea
