Community Breakfast

Judy King

January 2025

As I begin the process of assigning team leaders to the community breakfast schedule I have to focus on our mission statement which is on the front of the bulletin each Sunday. Our mission states, "Share God's love, embrace our neighbors, nurture each other". The community breakfast definitely brings this statement to life.

The 2024 breakfasts were a great success. We averaged filling around 120 plates each month, feeding familiar and new faces. A big "thank you" to Joe DeVault for being in charge of the signs, many times putting up or taking down in the rain. Thank you to all team leaders and volunteers for making 2024 a year of sharing God's love.

I am hoping that each of you will continue to be a team leader. I am working on recruiting several new leaders. As many of you already know by now, a large amount of the work for the breakfast is done before Saturday. The main job for the leaders is to recruit volunteers (we do have some new ones), unlock the church or be sure someone unlocks and oversees cooking, serving and clean up the day of the breakfast. Everyone understands and performs their job and works together like a well-oiled engine.

Please let me know what two dates you prefer. Remember you can always change dates with other leaders if there is a conflict. I hope to fill the schedule soon so I can get the list to Rita for the year. If I don't hear from you, I will assign you two months and if you have a conflict, let me know. I will send copies of the completed schedule along with a list of suggested volunteers.

Thank you so much ahead of time for helping to continue this important mission of our church.
