Pastor's Corner

Pastor Bea Miller

Dear First Presbyterian family,

On Sunday I shared some breath prayers and several of you asked for the words I used, so I will share. But first, a little bit about breath prayer.

God's name in Hebrew, YHWH, the first language to call God by name, is not pronounceable ~ there are no vowels. God's name is the very sound of our breath and with each breath ~ from our first breath at birth to our last breath before we enter eternal life ~ we are calling the name of God. Every breath is a prayer.

There are many forms of prayer. One form is breath prayer. With breath prayer, we breathe in as we say, out loud or in our mind, a phrase and then we breathe out with a different phrase. Many people use breath prayers as a way to fall asleep ~ with God. Before I share Sunday's prayers, I'd like to share two classic breath prayers. The first is a variation of the Jesus prayer, "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, Have Mercy on me, a sinner." Of course, you can use the whole Jesus prayer, but here is a slightly shortened breath prayer version:

Breathing In ~ Jesus Son of God

Breathing Out ~ Have Mercy on me

Other breath prayers use words from scripture. You can use any scripture. Here is a verse that is commonly used as a breath prayer:

Breathing In ~ Be still and know

Breathing Out ~ That I am God

On Sunday, I reversed the breathing because the purpose was to focus on release. Breathing out is a physical letting go and adding the words helps our whole selves release. But the truth is, you can't get the breathing wrong. Just breathe and pray as God works wonders in you.

Breathing Out ~ I surrender my resistance

Breathing In ~ I allow what is to be

And

Breathing Out ~ I was meant to live in peace

Breathing In ~ Jesus is my peace

Peace be with you,

Pastor Bea

Community Breakfast

God provided us with some much needed rain last Saturday but the sun was shining in the fellowship hall at FPC. There was energy flowing through the kitchen and fellowship like blood flowing through our veins. All that energy provided a dry, safe and welcoming place for our 65+ guests to enjoy delicious food and entertainment. Barbara Duncan entertained everyone with her beautiful voice and guitar and Gale Buck captivated us all with his wonderful storytelling.

In total, we filled about 50 to go plates. Lynn Pritchett delivered breakfast to three of our shut-in members, while Janet Fentress delivered the leftover to go plates to the Woman's Shelter.

We had several new helpers on board and hopefully they will continue to be a part of this vital mission. A huge thank you to all the cooks, servers, entertainers and most of all to God for providing the food and energy to share.

Recapping the morning makes me smile and feel love.
